President's Message

EMBA will be sponsoring a 199'er sectional for our newer players this April 21st and 22nd at The Bridge Spot in Woburn. I would like to encourage players who are new to the game of bridge and particularly those of you who have recently joined the ACBL and never attended a sectional tournament to play one or both days of the tournament. This event is designed for the enjoyment of our less experienced players and newcomers. The pace of the game is more relaxed than our open sectionals at the Armenian Cultural and Arts Center in Watertown and is held in a friendly, social atmosphere. It is a great opportunity to make new friends and interact with other players of similar ability and interests while enjoying a morning or afternoon of bridge. On Saturday there will be one session games that begin at 10:30 am and 3:00 pm. The main event will be stratified into three flights: Flt A 100-199, Flt B 50-99, and Flt C 0-49. There will also be a separate game for players with 0-20 masterpoints. If you would like to try tournament bridge, but are nervous about competing against more experienced players, this event is for you. On Sunday there will be a 4 round Swiss team event beginning at Noon. Many players discover they love Swiss team events because they find it to be less demanding than pairs in the sense that overtricks do not matter so much – the emphasis is on just making your contract. Each morning thirty minutes before game time there will a free lecture given by Dean Panagopoulos, one of EMBA's most accomplished players. There will be great hospitality during the events and between sessions on Saturday we will be offering a free buffet lunch. On Sunday, a brunch will be served before the Swiss team game. Event winners will receive trophies and awards in addition to silver points. The games will be directed by Dean Panagopoulos, assisted by Bob Gaudet and others who will insure a friendly relaxed atmosphere. Dean will be happy to help anyone looking for a partner or teammates or to answer any other questions you may have about the event. He can be contacted by phone at 781-937-7768 or by e-mail at info@bridgespot.com. I hope to see many of you there!

Bid 'Em Like You Got 'Em, Then Go Get 'Em!

by Mark "The Shark" Aquino

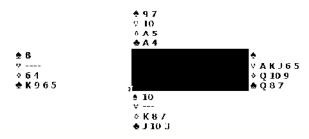

I was shocked to learn that Bob Simpson, owner of the Westwood Bridge Club, suddenly and unexpectedly passed away on February 10th at age 49. Today's article is dedicated to Bob as a tribute to all the cheerfulness and joy he has brought over the years to bridge players like me and my wife Susan, who was the declarer in today's hand from the last session we played at Bob's club.

First, I should explain how it was that Sue and I became the only pair in the room to arrive at an ambitious 4S contract on these cards. After 2 passes, I opted to open this hand 1H. We tend to promise 4+ diamonds when we open 1D in 3rd or 4th seat and we play a form of Drury, so I didn't think this would get us too high, while still allowing us to find a spade fit, if one existed. Rightly or wrongly, I decided to raise Sue's 1S response to 2, and now I had a mild dilemma when she trotted out "3C". If she held something like Kxxxx, x, Kx, Kxxxx, and suits were friendly, we might even have a slam on this hand, so I couldn't see passing. Instead, I stalled with a 3D bid, and who could blame Sue for now bidding 4S.

The defense started with 3 rounds of hearts and Sue did well by ruffing the third round with the JS of trumps, while West discarded a club. Now Sue played the 2 of spades to dummy's Ace and returned a spade to East's Q and her K. With a trump still left out, Sue now played a diamond to dummy's J and East's Q. Here was the position:

East got out safely with the 10 of diamonds, which Sue won in dummy and made the key play of ruffing dummy's last heart with her remaining trump the 10 of spades, as West discarded his last diamond. By this line of play, Sue performed what is known as a "dummy reversal". (No, this isn't a way to get even for some rude comment, and make one's husband look silly, but rather a way to score an extra trick by trumping losers in declarer's hand, and using dummy's master trumps to draw trumps. On this deal , even though she only had 4 spades in each hand, Sue, through careful play, was able to ruff two spades in her hand, and still draw 3 rounds of trumps.) Sue now crossed to dummy's club Ace, cashed the 9 of spades, discarding a club from her, as West had to follow with his remaining trump the 8. Now Sue was able to cash all the diamonds, pitching dummy's sole loser, the small club, and scored up her game – for a cold top!

Today's Shark's Pointers are 1) Keep the image of Bob Simpson's smile and cheerful demeanor with you at all times – at and away from the table.

2) Always remember to count your winners and your losers, and 3) When you need and extra trick, look for opportunities to separate your trump tricks, and execute a neat "dummy reversal", just like my wife did on this rather spiffy hand.

In Memoriam...

It is with great sadness that we report the recent death of Robert G. Simpson at the age of 49. Bob was born in Needham, MA, and graduated from Needham High School in 1981. He served in the U.S. Army Reserve and worked for the U.S. Postal Service and several companies in the computer industry, but his passion in life was duplicate bridge. For the past several years he ran the Westwood Duplicate Bridge Club and was an ACBL tournament director who directed at many EMBA sectionals. He lived the saying "If you love what you do, you will never work a day in your life."

Some of Mollo's books are still in print, but not the first of this series, Bridge in the Menagerie. It remains one of the most popular bridge books of all time (but not always compatible with modern zero tolerance). On amazon.com, used copies are pricey, and one new copy is available for just under $3,000!

The Rueful Rabbit made a quest appearance for this deal as Eric's partner. The auction was normal enough, and R.R. led his partner's suit. Emily captured Eric's ${\color{red} \bullet} Q$ with the ♠A, played a heart to dummy, and passed the ♠Q for a finesse. At this point, R.R. played his pair of kings, and I was called.

Ruling: the ◆K must be played to the trick, and the ◆K becomes a major penalty card to be played at the first opportunity. As you can see, the ♠K is the only return that holds declarer to nine tricks and a poor matchpoint score. Otherwise, declarer will get at least one more spade trick.

Law 23 says, "When the play has been completed, the Director awards an adjusted score if he considers the offending side has gained an advantage through the irregularity*. * As, for example, by partner's enforced pass." The footnote is the key - this rule is intended to protect against the possibility of violating the rules for gain (cheating). For example, in the bad old days, some people would make an insufficient bid with the intent to bar partner from the auction.

In this case, there could be no possibility of intentionally violating the rules for gain. It was just an accident, and I let the result at the table stand. After all, anybody who could drop the ♠K on the table could choose to thumb it out there as well. Suppose R.R. had intentionally exposed both cards at the same time, essentially leading to the next trick while winning the current one - poor style, but no technical difference from what happened. It would be unfair to require the ♠K to be led, but then add a penalty if it happens to be a good lead.

- Pete Matthews

P.S. The Hideous Hog was also present in spirit that evening, for our annual meeting game. It must have been the great dinner orchestrated by R.R! See "Bid Their Suits!" at http://web.mit.edu/mitdlbc/www/contrib.html#SessionNotes.
